Dear Walk & Waggers,

On behalf of homeless animals everywhere, thank you for your interest in North Shore Animal League America's seventh annual Walk & Wag and first ever 30-Mile Facebook Walk Challenge. Once again, this special fundraiser will bring our community together to support and strengthen our no-kill mission.

The funds you raise mean we can conduct more rescue transports, provide more first-class veterinary care, find more animals their loving homes, and educate more schoolchildren on the plight of shelter pets. When you participate in Walk & Wag, you can feel proud that with every step you are helping us save the lives of dogs, cats, puppies and kittens in need, just like this Walk & Wagger shared:

"I am doing Walk & Wag for all the animals at North Shore Animal League America, and for all the potential animals they can rescue. I walk because I know the impact my pet has made in my life, and how we can also help give other animals their second chance."

And whether you live in our neighborhood or across the country, you are an important member of our community. As a virtual walker, you can form a team and walk with your four-legged friend on a trail, in a park, or around your office building while generating lifesaving donations!

"We are in California and participating in virtual Walk & Wag made perfect sense to us! We're so happy that just by doing what we do every day with our dog Ginger, we can help support your wonderful organization."

This packet will be your guide as you prepare for your Walk & Wag 30-Mile Facebook Walk Challenge participation, and includes important event information and tips to get you motivated, inspire your team, and of course raise vital funds for homeless animals. Our events staff are here to assist you and answer any questions you may have along the way.

Hope you have fun and once again, my heartfelt thanks for supporting our efforts to create a no-kill world.

Sincerely,

J. John Stevenson
President & CEO

GENERAL WALK INFORMATION

30-MILE FACEBOOK WALK CHALLENGE SUGGESTIONS

- Walk with your friends, family, colleagues, and your furry best friend on a trail, in a park, or around your office building. Virtual walkers will receive a branded bandana while supplies last with their first donation. You also qualify for exciting Walk & Wag fundraising contests and prizes.
- Form a team: Enlist four or more people to register with you. That way you can spend time with your friends, family, and colleagues all while raising even more important, lifesaving funds.
- Communicate: Encourage and engage your team members with emails and/or group texts.
- Hydrate: Make sure you have plenty of water on hand for both dogs and human walkers.
- Submit your fundraising: The deadline is October 7 to qualify for contests and prizes. Be sure to check your email leading up to the walk for more information. (Prizes to be distributed in October.)

BOOST FUNDRAISING FOR YOUR WALK

Want to increase your donations? See below for some helpful fundraising suggestions.

TIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL ONLINE FUNDRAISING

- Use social media to expand your engagement. Share stories about the special animals in your life and why raising funds for North Shore Animal League America's no-kill mission is so important to you.
- Use photos for online fundraising tools — images are a great way to attract interest.

EFFECTIVE FUNDRAISING IDEAS

- Ask for donations in person — people are much more likely to give if you ask them face-to-face, rather than via email or letter.
- Ask your company to set up a “lunch and learn” to recruit employees for the Walk.
- Ask your friends to contribute to your fundraising page in lieu of gifts for a special occasion.
- Ask your local restaurants or frequently visited stores if they will donate a percentage of the day's earnings to your goal.
- Hold a pet party — invite your friends to bring their dogs over for a fun day filled with games for your pups. Makes a great time to ask for donations!
- See if your company has a matching gift program. Many companies will match a gift when an employee makes a donation. Matching gifts can double or triple the impact in fundraising totals!
- Print out a copy of the “Why I Walk & Wag” sign and proudly display it in your front window or on your door. You can also take a photo with it and post it on social media using the hashtag #walkandwag2023 and tag @animalleague

WHY I WALK

“Walk & Wag means being able to help the animals we all love so much. It inspires others to create a wave of change and adopt a dog or cat, who so badly deserves a loving home. Walk & Wag fosters a feeling of unity that we are all in this together to reinforce a brighter future for all our rescue pets.”
- Jenna

“ We wanted you to know our inspiration to fundraise for Walk & Wag is because we want to help save all the rescue animals to give them a fighting chance to enjoy their lives like I do. It is important that we help save God’s little animals who cannot protect themselves.
- Gail & Snow Angel

“ Our family has been attached to NSALA since 2002 when we got our first puppy Madison. We walk to support the great work they do. We also walk to honor our good friend Cory Kramer, who truly loved animals and everything about NSALA.
- Joseph & Lila

Production Solutions formed their team, Captain Cory's Crusaders, in memory of their co-worker and friend, Cory Kramer. She loved her dog, London, and three cats Thorin, Gambit and Teddie. She also loved North Shore Animal League America, so they joined together to walk in her honor and for homeless animals everywhere.

PET FIRST AID ESSENTIALS

Most people have first aid kits in their home, office, and cars for themselves and their family members, but not every pet owner has an essential first aid kit for their pets. We'd like to help you assemble your own pet first aid kit so that you can be ready if an emergency occurs.

KEEP AN EMERGENCY PET SUPPLY AND FIRST AID KIT ON HAND AT ALL TIMES

- A basic pet first aid book
- Waterproof carrying case for paperwork and supplies
- A sturdy carrier large enough for your pet to stand and turnaround
You want to transport your pet safely and securely
- A supply of your pet's current prescriptions such as heartworm and flea/tick medication packed in waterproof containers clearly labeled with pet's name
- Prescription medications with dosing
- Photocopies of your pet's paperwork: Important medical records, vaccinations, microchip number, etc.
- Copies of current veterinary history including medical conditions and vaccination information
- Emergency contact numbers for alternative caretakers should you become incapacitated or unable to care
- Current photographs of all pets and microchip or license numbers for identification of your pet
- Phone numbers and addresses of your veterinarian, emergency animal hospital, a local animal shelter/humane society, or boarding kennels and pet-friendly motels/hotels, poison control center
- At least one week's supply of food and water, including bowls and a manual can opener
- Bags to pick up after your dog; cat litter and disposable litter box for your cat
- Cleaning supplies: Paper towels, newspapers, disinfectant
- A mild antibacterial soap: To clean skin and wounds
- Alcohol prep pads: To sterilize equipment — DO NOT use on wounds
- Cotton swabs
- Self-adhesive bandages: Flexible bandages used to wrap and stabilize injuries (do not wrap too tightly)
- Gauze pads and rolls: For wounds
- Eyewash: Contact lens solution or water in a squeeze bottle to gently but thoroughly flush out wounds and eyes for your pet
- Triple antibiotic ointment: For cuts and abrasions (never for eyes)
- Hydrogen peroxide: For cleaning minor cuts and abrasions
- Medical gloves: To protect hands and prevent contamination
- Scissors: To cut gauze or the animal's hair if necessary
- Tweezers: For the removal of foreign objects from skin and paws
- Adjustable muzzle:
  - In case your pet is injured or frightened and needs to be handled by rescue workers or a veterinarian and frequency
  - To safely attend to wounds without the risk of being bitten
